to walk as ONE

After a particularly difficult afternoon, a very unhappy 7 year-old retreated to her room. Her mother found her, laying on her bed and reciting the rosary. “Mommy, I am trying so hard to be good and I am praying all day. But it’s just not working!”

We can be very impatient with ourselves, especially when we are trying to change. Whether we are trying to lose weight, master a skill, or end a bad habit, it can be frustrating not to see immediate progress. We may even judge ourselves and give up because we are just too lazy, tired, dumb or old to make the change we know we need.

Spiritual change is also difficult. Even St. Paul said that the spirit is willing but the flesh is weak. Doubts can linger, temptation can grow stronger, and virtue can seem impossible. Worse, we know what we need to do and we want to do it right now. But it does not work that way. We need patience and perseverance, determination and a reliance on God’s grace to achieve what we know we need to do. We need the support of our family, working together to overcome the failings and faults that can easily divide us. An openness about our own struggles encourages everyone to face their own sins and choose grace. Pray, sacrifice, sacrament and practice will help virtue take root in the field of our soul. Keep on praying! It really does work!
